Placenames, Language Change and the History of North Herts - Lunchtime Talk

9th August, 1.00pm

Discover how the history of North Herts has been in front of you the whole time!

Placenames often hold clues about the languages spoken in the past, telling us more about the people who first coined them; our local placenames hold some unexpected clues about local history.

Join us for a lunchtime talk at North Hertfordshire Museum by Keith Fitzpatrick-Matthews.

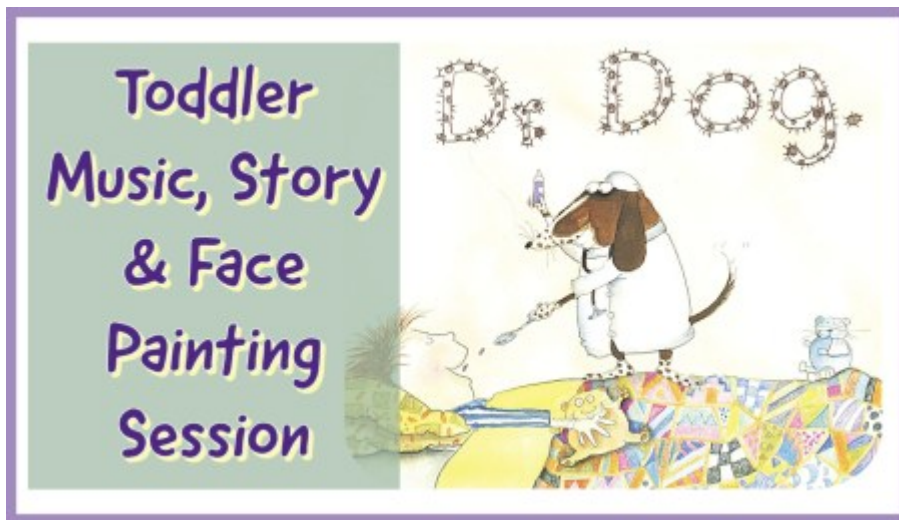

Upcoming Events at the Museum This Summer!

£5 per person including a complimentary tea or coffee.

Dr Dog - Toddler Music, Story & Face Painting Session

13 August, 10:45am, 11:40am

It's always handy to have a doctor for a pet! The Gumboyle family are sick but Dr Dog is back from Brazil to look after them.

Join us at North Herts Museum on the 13th August, where we will be having another one of our monthly toddler music, craft and story sessions. This time we will be reading 'Dr Dog' by Babette Cole and having a good old sing-song. There will even be dog face painting!

Aimed at ages 2 - 5 years old. £7 per child or £12 for two children.

A Commute Through Time - Evening Talk

31 August, 7.30pm

Upcoming Events at the Museum This Summer!

Commuters who use Hitchin Station will be familiar with the colourful photo panels which brighten the underpass between platforms.

The photos in the panels are from our museum's large collection of photographs and cover a range of themes. Join us for this talk which takes seven of the panels and runs through some of the amazing things they show!

Join us for an evening talk at North Hertfordshire Museum by Matthew Platt.

£5 per person including a complimentary tea or coffee.
