

Roman Objects

Look at these objects – a lamp, a brooch, a golden ring, a Dea Nutrix and a Samian dish

Where in North Hertfordshire were these things found? Can you explain how they were used in everyday life? To find the answers on your computer, type in www.ehive.com Then, press Search, and in the Search objects box, type in Nherts. Next, again in the Search objects box, type in Roman lamp, and you'll find the lamp. Carry on like this with the others: Roman brooch, Roman gold ring, Dea Nutrix, and Roman Samian dish.

Think about how you might put all these objects into a picture or a story
Use these questions to help you write your story or draw your picture.

- Who would wear the brooch?
- Which person's favourite household god is a Dea Nutrix?
- Would a lamp be enough light to find a lost ring?
